| C.R. BARD, INC. et al., Plaintiffs, v. MEDICAL COMPONENTS, INC., Defendant. | MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER GRANTING MOTIONS FOR LEAVE TO FILE DOCUMENTS UNDER SEAL Case No. 2:17-cv-00754 District Judge Howard C. Nielson, Jr. Magistrate Judge Daphne A. Oberg |
|---|---|

In this patent infringement case, the parties have filed several motions¹ for leave to file documents under seal. None of the motions are opposed. For the reasons explained below, the motions are granted.

LEGAL STANDARDS

“Courts have long recognized a common-law right of access to judicial records.”² Indeed, the District of Utah’s local rules provide that court records are “presumptively open to the public,” and sealing of court records is “highly discouraged.”³ However, the right of public access is “not absolute.”⁴ “[T]he presumption in favor of access to judicial records may be overcome where countervailing interests heavily outweigh the public interests in access.”⁵ “The burden is on the party seeking to restrict access to show some significant interest that outweighs the presumption.”⁶ For example, documents containing “sensitive, proprietary information concerning [a party’s] business practices” may properly be sealed.⁷ Finally, under the local rules, a motion to seal must be “narrowly tailored to seek protection of only the specific information that the party alleges is truly deserving of protection.”⁸

ANALYSIS

A. Motions to Seal Relating to MedComp’s Motion for Leave to File Sur-Reply

The parties both move⁹ to seal portions of MedComp’s Motion for Leave to File Sur-Reply in Support of MedComp’s Motion to Stay, and portions of Exhibit A thereto.¹⁰

Bard also moves¹¹ to seal Exhibits 1 and 2 to its opposition to MedComp's motion for leave to file a sur-reply.¹² MedComp's motion for leave to file a sur-reply was not addressed on the merits—the court denied the motion as moot.¹³ Under these circumstances, the public's interest in access to the sealed documents is minimal and is outweighed by the confidentiality interests articulated in the parties' motions to seal. These motions to seal¹⁴ are granted. The documents at issue¹⁵ shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered.

B. Motions to Seal Relating to MedComp's Motion for Leave to Serve Supplemental Expert Report of Dr. Cooper

MedComp moves¹⁶ to seal portions of its Short Form Motion for Leave to Serve Supplemental Expert Report of Dr. Cooper Upon Identifying New Factual Assertions in Dr. Roche's Rebuttal Report, and Exhibit 1 thereto,¹⁷ based on Bard's confidentiality designations. Bard moves¹⁸ to seal the same documents, arguing they contain Bard's confidential business information.

Where the documents are filed in connection with briefing on a nondispositive motion, Bard's confidentiality interests outweigh the public's interest in access at this stage.¹⁹ These motions to seal²⁰ are granted. The documents at issue²¹ shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered.

C. Motions to Seal Relating to MedComp's Motion for Leave to Serve Supplemental Expert Report of Lois Romans

MedComp moves²² to seal portions of its Short Form Motion for Leave to Serve Supplemental Rebuttal Expert Report of Lois Romans Upon Identifying New Factual Assertions in Dr. Roche's Rebuttal Report, and Exhibit 1 thereto,²³ based on Bard's confidentiality designations. Bard moves²⁴ to seal the same documents, arguing they contain Bard's confidential business information. Bard also moves²⁵ to seal portions of

D. Motions to Seal Relating to Bard's Motion to Compel Expert Report Draft

Bard moves³⁰ to seal portions of its Short Form Motion to Compel Dr. Voth's Expert Report Draft, and Exhibits A through D thereto,³¹ based on MedComp's confidentiality designations. A review of the sealed documents confirms they contain confidential business information and sensitive health information, and the redactions are narrowly tailored to protect this information. Further, the public's interest in access to court records is satisfied by the parties' redacted filings and the court's discussion of the expert's health situation in the order addressing Bard's short form motion.³⁵ Accordingly, MedComp and its expert's confidentiality interests outweigh the public's interest in access to these documents at this stage. These motions to seal³⁶ are granted. The documents at issue³⁷ shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered.

G. Motions to Seal Relating to Bard's Motion to Strike Portions of Expert Reports

Bard moves⁵³ to seal Exhibits B through E to its Short Form Motion to Strike Portions of Ms. Romans' and Dr. Voth's Rebuttal Expert Reports Relating to Non-Infringing Alternatives and to Strike MedComp's Second Supplemental Response to Interrogatory No. 7,⁵⁴ arguing these documents contain the parties' confidential business information. On the same grounds, MedComp moves⁵⁵ to seal portions of its response to Bard's short form motion, and Exhibits 2 through 5 thereto.⁵⁶ Finally, on the same grounds, MedComp moves⁵⁷ to seal portions of its supplemental response to Bard's short form motion, and Exhibits 2, 3, 5, and 7 through 9 thereto.⁵⁸

J. Motions to Seal Relating to Motions to Exclude Expert Testimony

The parties move⁷⁴ to seal portions of the briefing and associated exhibits relating to motions to exclude expert testimony, arguing the documents contain the parties' confidential business information. A review of these documents confirms they contain confidential business information, and the redactions are narrowly tailored to protect this information. Moreover, significant portions of the briefing remain publicly accessible. Where the documents are filed in connection with briefing on nondispositive motions, the parties' confidentiality interests outweigh the public's interest in access at this stage.⁷⁵ These motions to seal⁷⁶ are granted. The documents at issue⁷⁷ shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered.

K. Motions to Seal Relating to Summary Judgment Motions

Finally, the parties move to seal portions of the summary judgment briefing and related exhibits, arguing these documents contain both parties' confidential business information. Specifically, Bard moves⁷⁸ to seal portions of its Motion for Summary Judgment, and Exhibits 15, 17–20, 25, 31, 33, 35–37, 42–65, 67, 69–71 and 73 thereto;⁷⁹ MedComp and Bard both move⁸⁰ to seal portions of MedComp's opposition to Bard's motion for summary judgment, and Exhibit 1 thereto;⁸¹ Bard moves⁸² to seal portions of its reply in support of its motion for summary judgment;⁸³ MedComp moves⁸⁴ to seal portions of its Motion for Summary Judgment, and Exhibits 10–23, 25, 27, and

A review of the documents confirms they contain detailed, technical information regarding the parties' products, as well as other sensitive business information which could cause competitive harm (to the parties or third parties) if disclosed. Thus, the parties have articulated significant interests weighing against the presumption of public access. No doubt, the public's interest in access is heightened where these documents are filed in connection with a dispositive motion.⁸⁸ Nevertheless, the court has yet to rule on the summary judgment motions, and it remains to be seen whether and to what extent the redacted information will be used to determine the parties' substantive legal rights. Further, the redactions appear narrowly tailored, and significant portions of the briefing remain publicly accessible. Under these circumstances, the parties' and nonparties' interests in protecting confidential business information from competitors
